Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

*Thanksgiving for Baptism

P Alleluia! Christ is risen.
C Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

P In the waters of baptism, we have passed over from death to life with Jesus Christ, and we are a new creation. For this saving mystery, and for this water, let us bless God, who was, who is, and who is yet to come.

Water may be poured into the font as the presiding minister gives thanks.

We thank you, God, for your river of life, flowing freely through the earth, through the city, through every living thing. You flood us with mercy and grace us with life.

In Jesus Christ, you calm and trouble the waters. You nourish us and enclose us in safety. You call us forth and send us out. In lush and barren places, you are with us.

Breathe upon this water and awaken your church once more. Claim us again as your beloved and holy people. Quench our thirst; cleanse our hearts; wipe away every tear.

To you, our Beginning and our End, our Shepherd and our Lamb, be honor, glory, praise, and thanksgiving, now and forever.

C Amen.

*Opening Song

"A New Hallelujah"

Debbie Smith, Michael W. Smith, Paul Baloche © Music, LLC, Integrity's Hosanna! Music; Smittyfly Music. CCLI License #2793209

- Verse 1 Can you hear, there's a new song
Breaking out from the children of freedom.
Every race and every nation,
Sing it out, sing a new hallelujah.
- Verse 2 Let us sing love to the nations,
Bringing hope of the grace that has freed us.
Make Him known and make Him famous.
Sing it out, sing a new hallelujah.
- Chorus Arise! Let the church arise!
Let love reach to the other side.
Alive, come alive!
Let the song arise!
- Verse 3 All the world sings a new song,
Reaching out with a new hallelujah.
Ev'ry son and ev'ry daughter,
Ev'ryone sing a new hallelujah. Chorus

*Greeting and Prayer of the Day

- P The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- C And also with you.
- P Let us pray. Interrupt us this day, O God. Stop us in our tracks and re-orient us toward your will, your way, your call, your community. Open our eyes to see you at work in one another, open our minds to receive your word of peace, open our lives to be instruments of your invitation to another way. We ask in the name of Christ, who has disrupted the power of violence and death.
- C Amen.

Psalm 138

D A responsive reading from Psalm 138. Listen for the Word of the Lord.
C Our ears are open.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart;
before the gods I will sing your praise.

I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your name,
because of your steadfast love and faithfulness;
for you have glorified your name and your word above all things.

When I called, you answered me;
you increased my strength within me.

All the rulers of the earth will praise you, O Lord,
when they have heard the words of your mouth.

They will sing of the ways of the Lord,
that great is the glory of the Lord.

The Lord is high, yet cares for the lowly,
perceiving the haughty from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe;
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand shall save me.

You will make good your purpose for me;
O Lord, your steadfast love endures forever; do not abandon the works of your hands.

Reading

Acts 9:1-19a

D A reading from the book of Acts. Listen for the Word of the Lord.
C Our ears are open.

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?” He asked, “Who are you, Lord?” The reply came, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.” The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias.” He answered, “Here I am, Lord.” The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight.” But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name.” But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name.” So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

D Word of God, Word of Life!
C Thanks be to God!

The image shows two staves of musical notation for the Celtic Alleluia. Both staves are in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 6/8 time. The melody is written on a treble clef. The first staff ends with a double bar line, and the second staff continues the melody. The lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia!' are written below the notes. The melody is a simple, flowing line with eighth and quarter notes.

Gospel

Matthew 5:43–6:1

P The gospel according to Matthew, the fifth and sixth chapters.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said] “You have heard it said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.”

P The gospel of our Lord.

C Praise to you O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ, the true Paschal Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin; who in dying has destroyed death, and in rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,

and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
