

In some countries the people celebrate every day of the Twelve Days of Christmas with a gift each day!

John pointed to Jesus as the true Messiah coming into the world.

John 1

John the Baptist had some amazing things to say about God. Lots and lots of people came to hear him talk and be baptized by him. Some of the church leaders were curious about him.

"Are you God's promised Messiah? The one we've been waiting for?" one asked.

"No," answered John.

"Then are you the prophet Elijah come back to life?" asked another.

"Nope."

The leaders frowned. "Well, then who are you?" one demanded.

"I am the one God called to prepare the way for another. I baptize with water, but he will baptize with God's own Holy Spirit. He is the Messiah. The Lamb of God."

"The lamb of . . . wait, what? The Messiah is already here?"

John smiled. "Yep. His name is Jesus and it's my job to get people ready for him."

Messiah

The savior of the world. A Jewish name for Jesus.
