Isaiah 9

God's people were very sad. They had been carried far away from their homes by the Babylonians. They missed their life in Israel. God's prophet, Isaiah, spoke God's words of hope to the people:

"The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;

those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined."

God made the people a promise that one day, a new King would come to them. Isaiah told them:

"For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;

authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named

Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,

Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace."

Many, many years later, people believed that this promised king was Jesus!

Counselor

One who listens and advises, showing us the way.
